MARCO DIVISION TOURNAMENT

Tuesday March 25th 2014

Rookies 10

Crazy Flamingo's 7

Rookies won the Marco Divisional Tournament going undefeated in the behind the pitching of Angelo Polizzi along with strong defensive support from his team. The game ended when Rookies 83 year old John "The Bionic Man" Ranieri dove for a ground ball and then tossed it from his knees to first baseman Dan O'Sullivan, just nipping his older 83 (by three weeks) counterpart Dom Fiorda of Crazy Flamingo's for the final out of the game, tournament and 2014 season.

The game was tied at 2-2 before Rookies erupted for six runs in the bottom of the second and then left the game in the hands of Polizzi and the defense.

Rookies Jerry Lenhoff, Bill Moors and Ernie Famiglietti had two hits. One of Lenhoff hits' was a towering two run homerun blast, with Nick Brooks walloping a triple. Ray Niemeyer and Jim White chased home two runs in the win.

Crazy Flamingo's Ray Zielinski, Bob Monaco, and Chuck Wilson drilled three hits with Steve Slaggie and Dick DeAnna having two. One of Zielinski's hits' was a triple. Monaco and Wilson recorded two RBI in the game.
