Thompson recorded five RBI and had a three run homerun, while winning pitcher Lou Wolfenson drove in three runs and cracked a triple helping his cause. Jim Blankenship nailed three hits for Sand Bar to go along with his two walks, with Dave Droddy whacking a triple. Tom Angelo and Scott Byers had two RBI each in the loss.

Nacho Mama's 13

Sasso's 8

Slugger Rich Small started the 2014 season with a bang blasting a grand slam homerun as part of his three five RBI performance for Nacho Mama's. John DeRosa racked up three hits with Rick Benedetti and John Barrett driving in two runs; John Cavanagh smacked a triple in the win. Sasso's had three players with three hits; John Gross, Tom Pugh, and another rookie in the league Michael Arnold. Arnold and Pugh each cracked a triple, with Pugh collecting two RBI.

MARCO DIVISION

Tuesday January 7th 2014

Rookies 12

Joey's Pizza 7

Rookies overcame a 7-2 deficit to win the opening game in the Marco Division playing in cold forty degree weather with a 15-20 mph wind. Rookies Ray Niemeyer, Danny O'Sullivan, and first year players Tom Bishard and Pat Comerford had two hits each. Niemeyer launched a two run homerun and Bishard nailed a triple. Joe Kruse and O'Sullivan each drove home two runs. Joey's Jim Vitas stung the ball for three hits, Bill Kaschube and Dick DeAnna chalked up two hits, while Chet Dal Bianco cranked a triple. Kaschube, Dal Bianco and Denny Davis had two RBI in the game.

CJ's on the Bay 9

Crazy Flamingo's 4

Five CJ's player slashed two hit apiece; Fran Diotte, Warren Uhl, Leon Schmitt, Fred Kramer and Mike Behr in the win. Tony Brock drove in two of CJ's runs on a double. Crazy Flamingo's Ray Zielinski and Dan Stanard tagged two hits, with Keith Stought collecting three RBI on a bases loaded double.

Porky's 20

Stonewalls 5

In a game shorten due to the fifteen run mercy rule, Porky's made the team's entry into the league a memorable one and Stonewalls entry into the league one they would they would like to forget. Winning pitcher Butch Monson limited Stonewalls to only six hits with Dick DeAnna driving in two of Stonewalls five runs. Monson and new league member Pat O'Connor lined three hits; while Dave Coward, Don Schwartz, Daryl Judson, Jim White, Jim Conway, and John Hedges peppered two hits. Monson walloped a homerun in the game and chased home three runs as did Judson. Schwartz, Conway, Gary Badger, Jim Battye and Ron Burger drove in two runs each.
